

Stamp River Provincial Park

BE PREPARED

The Stamp Long River trail is 7.5km long and takes approximately 3 hours (one way) for an average hiker.

There are no access points between here and the other end of the trail.

Hikers should be prepared:

- Wear proper footwear and clothing for weather conditions
- Carry water and snacks
- Do not start to attempt the trail late in the day
- Carry a first-aid kit

LEGEND

- Hiking Trail
- Information
- Toilets
- Parking
- Camping
- Viewpoint
- Long Trail up the River
Sayāchlas tā šaa nim
- Road
- Provincial Park Boundary

Photo: Rick Avis

Long Trail up the River

Sayāchlas tā šaa nim

BCParks

Stay Safe - Have Fun

www.bcparks.ca

